[redacted] was contacted at the AMERICAN EAGLE ticket counter at LOGAN AIRPORT. After being advised of the personal and official identities of the investigating agent and the identity of the Sergeant [redacted], MASSACHUSETTS STATE POLICE [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] stated she is employed as a ticket agent for AMERICAN AIRLINES AA, and came to work at LOGAN AIRPORT at 5:00 AM on September 11, 2001, Boston. [redacted] processed a number of passengers for various AA flights, and recalls checking in SATAM AL SUQAMI for AA Flight 11 from Boston to Los Angeles. [redacted] recalls helping AL SUQAMI, because he had difficulty understanding English and he was at her counter for seven to ten minutes while she contacted a translator to ask AL SUQAMI the airline security questions. While standing at her counter, AL SUQAMI seemed nervous and agitated while she tried to find the telephone number for a translator.

[redacted] described AL SUQAMI as a Middle Eastern male, approximately 5'7" tall with a medium build, black hair, brown eyes and no facial hair. [redacted] stated he was a "handsome man" with a "sophisticated look." AL SUQAMI was wearing a tan or ivory colored long sleeve button down shirt with a collar. He also had an expensive looking gold watch with a watch face that was flush with the gold link band.

AL SUQAMI did not check any luggage and used a passport as identification when he checked in. The passport had a red cover and expired in approximately 2004 or 2005. The picture in the passport showed AL SUQAMI as a younger man.

[redacted] stated she may have charged a fee or accepted a credit card from AL SUQAMI, but after checking AA records, she could not find any record of the transaction.
